

I oppose the vote that leads to media consolidation. The rules should be serving the public interest, which means more varied ownership. The FCC should not be making it easy for an ever smaller number of aggressive private interests to control the media. On June 2, I urge you to retain the current ownership rules.